SPRING OUTING

Legal London - the Inns of Court Tuesday 16th April 2024

All barristers must belong to one of the four Inns of Court, all of which are in the heart of London where the English legal system was developed.

We shall visit all four of them, starting in the Temple, with its Great Hall, and its Church. We shall have lunch in the Hall and then a walk through the Royal Courts of Justice and into Lincoln's Inn and finally to Gray's Inn. Hear about the history, some of the characters, famous and infamous or simply admire the beauty of the surroundings.

The walk is being led by Anne-Marie Craven

10.30 meet at Temple Tube Station – Walk to embankment and up Middle Temple Lane
11.00 Brief description of Fountain Court
11.15 Guided tour of Middle Temple Hall and apartments if available
12.30 Lunch in Middle Temple Hall
13.00 Walk to Inner Temple and brief look at Temple Church (fee included)
14.00 Walk to Fleet street – by the Royal Courts of Justice; Continue towards Lincoln's Inn – visit Chapel if open, the gardens and the outside of the Hall and Library
15.00 Exit to Chancery Lane towards Holborn and Grays Inn for brief tour around the grounds
15.45-ish finish tour – we shall be near Chancery Lane or Farringdon Tube Stations

It's a good idea to be prepared for rain!

Anne-Marie Craven is an art historian spent many years doing picture research and running a fine art picture library specialising in art, history and archaeology with some militaria. On retirement she trained as a Blue Badge Guide and does walking tours, even the odd virtual tour during lockdown, concentrating on London and the outskirts. See her website: <http://londonwalk.uk>
